Dr Theodor Mascarenhas, the Auxiliary Bishop of Ranchi and an Apostolic Administrator of Daltonganj Diocese was received with a traditional welcome ceremony.

The Faculty Development Program began at 11.15A.M. The MC of the program Asst. Prof. Anjna Ekka warmly welcomed the chief guest and the faculty members to the program. Fr. John Tirkey felicitated the Bishop with a traditional shawl. Dr. Theodor began with an inspiring note that teaching is not just a profession but avocation of love and service. He also made it clear that in a profession we advance ourselves but in a vocation, we make others advance. He spoke on the core values of human life and professional and vocational ethics that we need to up hold as teachers and mentors.

Honesty, transparency, hard work, dedication and personal honesty are the most needed standards for teachers. At the end, he left the audience with a point for reflection that is, "what is the most valuable thing that I hold in my life?" Because what each one holds most valuable will be the guiding factor for all other values in one's life.

At last, the Bishop appreciated everyone for his or her hard work in shaping the lives of young ones into better citizens. Asst. Prof. Maxentius Kujur proposed the vote of thanks to everyone. The FDP was concluded by 12.15 P.M
