On the 3rd of May 2019, we gathered for the Annual Valediction, a heartfelt event designed to bid farewell to the students of the 2016-2019 batch. This occasion was not only a farewell to our beloved students but also an opportunity to express our gratitude and bid adieu to two esteemed faculty members, Assistant Professor Sr. Nirmala Por Selvi from the Department of English and Assistant Professor Br. Sanjay Martin Kujur from the Department of Chemistry, whose dedicated service to our college had come to an end. The highlight of the evening was the captivating cultural performances presented by students from various departments. These performances added a touch of artistry and culture to the farewell gathering, making it a memorable experience for all.
