The director and the professors of the Coaching Centre were grateful to the management of the college for providing them with a favourable atmosphere and facilities for the well functioning of the centre.

1 DAY OUTREACH PROGRAM

July 11 is globally observed as 'WORLD POPULATION DAY'. On this occasion, an outreach program was conducted by the Department of Geography under the guidance of Asst. Professors Keerti Minj and Shephali Prakash at Gurgutoli village on 11th July 2022.

Theme - "Gender Equality Today for a Sustainable Tomorrow"

The Climate crisis and gender inequality are two core issues at the heart of Sustainable Development Goals. The effort to advance gender equality and tackle climate change at the same time is one of the greatest challenges to humanity in the 21st century. Students made the villagers aware of these burning issues through street plays and slogans.

Asst. Prof. Keerti Minj made the villagers aware of the adverse effect of climate change on the marginalized people because of their reliance on Earth's natural resources.

Pooja Kumari interacted with the villagers warning them how they are also at greater health and safety risks when the sanitation system becomes compromised as a part of the disappearing resources.

Rajmuni Baraik discussed the negative impact of gender inequality on women and young girls, who are already in fragile living conditions.

The event was concluded with the Vote of thanks proposed by Assistant Professor Shephali Prakash. She emphasized the importance of gender equality for a sustainable and equal future that will remain beyond our reach without it.

GENDER EQUITY PROGRAM IN SEMBARBUDHNI

On 13th

June 2022, a Gender Equity Program was organized by the Department of Economics in Sembarbudhni village, Mahuadanr with the aim of creating awareness among the villagers regarding gender discrimination and stereotyping prevalent in society. The students of the department gathered the villagers. Asst. Prof. Maxentius Kujur stressed the importance of gender equity and women's significant role in society. Students of the department took banners with many slogans and quotes related to gender equity. They performed a street play showing how girls face gender discrimination in society. At the end, Umar Abdullah appealed to the villagers to provide equal opportunities to girls, thus promoting gender equality in society.

The Villagers enjoyed the street play and took a pledge to provide equal opportunities to their children without gender discrimination. Overall, the outreach programme was a great success in making the students realize their responsibility towards society.

PREMCHAND JAYANTI

“To be successful in life what you need is education, not literacy or degrees”

Munshi Premchand

On 31st July 2022, the Faculty of Humanities observed Premchand Jayanti to commemorate his contribution to Hindi literature and society. The programme was inaugurated with traditional lamp lighting followed by garlanding the portrait of Munshi Premchand by Fr. Principal.

Asst. Prof. Fr. Simon Murmu threw light on Premchand's contribution to literature. Fr. Simon added that Premchand used his literary works as a weapon to reform society by depicting the exploitation of underprivileged people effortlessly and realistically. Asst. Prof. Avay Sukut Dungdung, HoD, Department of Hindi, said that Premchand was one of the leading literary figures who portrayed the hardships of the poor and common man exposing the follies of Indian society.

A wonderful skit on the drama titled 'Panch Parmeshwar' by Premchand was the centre of attraction of this programme. Fr. Principal appreciated the efforts of students for presenting the skit so perfectly. Fr. Reiterated Premchand's sayings emphasizing the importance of education to bring about changes in life and society. It is the most important tool to be successful in life. The programme was anchored by Miss Twinkle and Mr. Awnit. All professors and students of Hindi, English and Kurukh were present in this programme.

VOTER AWARENESS CAMP

On June 23, 2023, St. Xavier's College Mahuadanr took the initiative to organize a voter awareness camp, recognizing the importance of active youth participation in the democratic process. The event was attended by a total of 220 students, who eagerly participated in this educational program.

The organizers firmly believed that the youth of India hold immense power and potential, capable of shaping the nation's future. They understand that students, in particular, play a crucial role in the overall development of the country. With this in mind, they aimed to educate and empower the students at St. Xavier's College to fulfill their constitutional responsibilities as citizens in a democracy.

The highlight of the event was a lecture delivered by the esteemed Dr. Fr. M. K. Jose SJ, the Principal of St. Xavier's College. The Principal passionately spoke about the significance of constitutional responsibility in a democracy, emphasizing the role each citizen plays in upholding the values of the constitution. His insightful talk enlightened the students about their rights and duties as voters.

Mahuadanr Block Divisional Officer also took the stage to deliver an informative session on the value of voting and the procedure for adding names to the voter list. This lecture aimed to simplify and demystify the process, ensuring that the students understood the importance of being registered voters. The Divisional Officer provided step-by-step instructions and answered queries to clarify any doubts or concerns the students might have had.

To further assist the students in their journey towards becoming responsible voters, the Assistant Electoral Registration Officer/Block Development Officer of Mahuadanr utilized the Voter Helpline app. Through this innovative application, the officer provided the students of St. Xavier's College with comprehensive information regarding form entry. This digital tool equipped the students with valuable resources and guidance, ensuring they had access to accurate and up-to-date information.

The voter awareness camp at St. Xavier's College Mahuadanr successfully instilled a sense of civic duty and awareness among the participating students. It inspired them to actively engage in the democratic process and exercise their right to vote responsibly. By providing them with the necessary knowledge and tools, the event aimed to contribute to a more informed and empowered electorate, ultimately strengthening India's democratic foundation.

THE DEPARTMENTAL TOUR – 2022

Place – Puri (Odisha)

Date – 22nd of October 2022 to 26th October 2023

In the month of October 2022 we had organized Departmental tour for five days. We had multiple meetings with the students to decide the locations for the tour. There were two choices for the tour, first place selected were to visit Rajgir in Bihar, and second was to visit Puri. In the meeting Puri was selected for tour. For tour we had arranged a guide to organize the each day schedule. Date for the tour was selected from 22nd October to 26th October 2022. On 22nd of October we all professors of the Department and 27 students left from Mahuadanr.

From Ranchi to Puri we travelled by the train name Tapaswani Express. We Travelled full night and landed on the destination at 8 am in the morning.

On 23th of October 2022 we checked in the hotel and there we had breakfast in the hotel itself and went to Puri beach. There we spent full day and enjoyed the sea bath. All the students liked the sea and its waves and took bath in the sea water. Around 01.00 pm we came back to the hotel took bath and had the lunch and in the evening we travelled to golden beach. In the golden beach more than 3 hours students had shopping time. There we saw mostly sea art and craft in the market. At 4 pm beach was looking like gold. Sea sand and sea beach was shining like gold. We enjoyed the day. Then at 6 pm we travelled to the main town of the Puri to visit the Jagarnath Temple. From Golden beach to Jagarnath Temple we travelled on foot. There some students had chance to enter into the Temple to venerate God. We all didn't enter into the temple because of the crowd. Temple is a historical monument that is constructed by Gang Dynasty King. And this temple is one of the Four Dham of the Hindu Religion. Here in the place every year Rath Yatra is organized in the rainy season. Then we were back to the hotel Room and had the dinner and took rest.

On 24th of October 2022 we had visited the Historical place called Chandrabhaga. This beach has religious importance because every year for one day sea water touches and covers the temple ground and returns back to sea. There we stayed half an hour then we moved towards to Konark Temple. We reached the Konark Temple at 10 Am there we spent the day enjoyed the architect engineering. We had a temple guide who explained the history of the temple and gave information of the temple. Then all the students left free for 1 hour to take picture and see the beauty of the temple. All the students enjoyed the day. In the Konark itself we had lunch and from there we travelled to see the historical caves name udaigiri and khondgiri. Here twin caves were built on two rock mountains. The caves were beautifully scripted. There we had been for two hours. Then we came back to hotel.

On 25th October 2022 we visited the famous Chilika lake. We travelled towards the Chilika Lake after the breakfast and reached there around 11 am. There we did boating for 4 hours, we went across the lake and had lunch there. From the Chilika Lake we were back to the hotel around 5 pm then we had rest and after having dinner we went to the Puri station to get back to Ranchi.

On 26th of October 2022 we all landed in the Hatiya Railway Stations around 11am. In the stations itself we had lunch and returned back to Mahuaanr in the evening. All the students enjoyed the tour and safely came back home.

VILLAGE DRAIN CLEANING DRIVE

Amboatoli, Mahuadanr

9 September 2022

On 9 September 2022, a cleanliness drive was organized to clean the drain of Amboatoli village of Mahuadanr by the conscientious students of Semester V of Commerce Department.

Such environmental programs are organized by the Department of Commerce regularly with the aim to impart civic sense among the students and to foster the sense of responsibility among people in keeping the environment clean.

Amboatoli village drainage remained neglected for a long time. Due to ignorance and lack of sensitivity, people throw all the garbage in the drain. Consequently, wastewater remained stagnant in the drain and in the rainy season, rainwater got accumulated and spilled over to the road. Big potholes in the road with drain water filling them made traffic very inconvenient for people. This drain also connects the Jharkhand market of Mahuadanr via Shaheed Chowk.

The students of the Commerce Department tried to make the drain clean and endeavored to discharge their own social responsibility and attempted to impart the sense of social responsibility among the people concerning a clean environment.

QUESTIONS BY ANJU KUJUR

1. Do you prepare new plants here by crafting?

- Yes we cut down the stem and remove bark of the tree or plant and them. The stem which is cut is kept in the new plant than for sticking something like also is put and tied with the plastics. After 15 days the plants are ready.

QUESTION BY ANJU ROSE TIGGA

2. How do you irrigate the plants by drip system?

Drip system has come from the Israel. Their farm land is divided into 4 sections. Each section takes 2 hours for irrigation .Through drip system pipe has line spread to all the farm land .The water goes through 3 pipes, water directly goes and drips at the plant's root. It helps in preventing water loose and makes easier to remove grasses.

3. QUESTION ASKED BY SATISH KACHHAP WERE AS FOLLOWED

1. If the cultivation is done in all season?

Yes

2. In how much land area cultivated is done?

3 acre

3. Do they use only organic fertilizers?

No we use both organic and inorganic

4. How mach investment is done?

30-40,000.

5. How much income you generate every day?

Everyday income is 3-4 thousand and overall 30%-40%of the investment.

Interaction with Mr. Vimal Kachhap was very fruitful for students. They came to know how organic farming is more sustainable, reduces non

Rajdanda, Mahuadanr

11 February 2023

The Department of Botany organized an Awareness Program at Rajdanda Village on 11 February 2023. The objectives were to educate the farmers on pesticides, chemicals, organic farming techniques, sustainable agriculture, rainwater harvesting, etc.

In the program, the students explained to the participants the ill effects of using chemicals on the crops or in the soil. The use of chemicals reduces the soil fertility and the nutritious value of the crop. Instead, it causes injury to health. People need to go back to organic farming to maintain the level of soil capacity and good health. Concretely it means the use of bio-manure and bio-fertilizers.

The villagers were also taught the processes of bio-manure production. On behalf of the villagers, Mr. Surjeet Toppo proposed the vote of thanks. He said that the program was educative and motivative. The village, as a whole, will replace the hazardous chemical fertilizers and insecticides with organic methods. He specially thanked the staff and students for making this program a great success.

FOREST FIRE EXTINGUISHING AWARENESS PROGRAM

Banskarcha

16th February 2023

On February 16, 2023, the Hindi department of St. Xavier's College organized an awareness program to extinguish fire in Banskarcha village. Sudden fire causes loss of life and property, it also has a bad effect on the environment, so this kind of awareness program develops a sense of awareness among people and people can make their important contribution in keeping the environment safe. The incidents of setting fire to the forests in order to pick Mahua in Mahua season are continuing.

Although many organizations are motivating people that setting fire to the forest is wrong. This is causing huge damage to the environment. On January 28, forests from Aksi to Banskarcha were set on fire. The fire was burning for two days. Baliram Manjhi, secretary of the Forest Rights Committee, took the initiative to douse the fire with the villagers of Banskarcha. Had to face a lot of trouble in extinguishing the fire. Niroj Manjhi, Babulal Manjhi, Mandhar Manjhi, Tulsi Manjhi,

Mohan Manjhi, Teju Manjhi, Sahindra Manjhi,

Pawan Kachuwa etc. Cooperated in extinguishing the fire. In this awareness program, Assistant Professor of Hindi Department Abhay Sukut Dungdung, Assistant Professor Reema Renu Kandulna and students were present.

AWARENESS PROGRAM ON GENDER EQUALITY

Govt. School Banskarcha

17 February 2023

The Department of Hindi, St. Xavier's College,

Mahuadanr organized a Gender Equality Awareness

Program at Govt. School, Banskarcha Village, Aksi Panchayat on 17 February 2023, under the guidance of Asst. Prof. Avay Sukut Dungdung and Asst. Prof. Reema Renu Kandulna.

The students and faculty members went door to door talking to the villager about the gender inequality and other sensitive issues related to discrimination. They highlighted gender inequality practiced at homes and communities. Parents assume unequal responsibility in household work, with women bearing the brunt of care giving and household chores. Low-skilled and underpaid community health workers are mostly women. And in schools, many girls receive less support than boys to pursue the studies they choose. This Happens for a variety of reasons: The safety, hygiene and sanitation need of girls. Discriminatory teaching practices and education materials also produce gender gaps in learning and skills development. As a result, nearly 1 in 4 girls between the ages of 10 and 20 are neither employed nor in education or Training – compared to 1 in 10 boys.

The team consisting of Anuja kujur, Abhijit Ekka, Anuj Lakra, Nidhi Xalxo, Arman Xalxo, Anjum Jivita Xaxa, Anupa Toppo visited the village school and spoke on gender equality. Other students of Hindi Department also actively participated in the program.

The objective of the program was to raise awareness among people that Malaria and dengue, serious mosquito borne diseases, can be prevented by keeping surroundings clean.

On this occasion, a public awareness rally was taken out and a street play staged. People were alerted against malaria and encouraged to make a habit of sleeping with a mosquito net. They were also told to keep the surroundings of the house clean and tidy so that mosquitos cannot thrive. In case of any complaint like high fever, body pain, headache, vomiting, rash on the body, bleeding from the nose or bleeding in the vomit, immediately get a checkup done at the nearest health center, so that better treatment can be done at the earliest.

Professor of Hindi Department Abhay Sukut Dungdung, Asst. Prof. Reema Renu Kandulna and students were present in this program.

SELF-DEFENCE TRAINING PROGRAM FOR WOMEN

SXC, Mahuadanr

23 February 2023

Department of Mathematics organized Self-Defense Training Program for women on 23 February 2023 in ICT Room. The main purpose of this program was to help girls develop the ability to perceive the threat situation and to equip them with self-defense techniques. All the girl students from the Department of Mathematics participated in the program.

Addressing the girls, Asst. Prof. Anjna Ekka said that girls face many complex challenges in society. Atrocities and violence against women are very common. She urged the girl students to be always on the alert mode. They should take care of their physical fitness by taking nutritious food and cultivate healthy habits of regular regimen of physical exercise. She gave practical tips on how to avoid situations and circumstances that may lead to unwanted/untoward incident. Having knowledge about self-defense techniques not only helps defend but also it builds confidence in oneself.

A video was presented to demonstrate several karate and martial arts techniques as part of self-defense. Through this program students learnt about the different kinds of violence that may be faced by girls or by women in any place including at home. They got different self-protection tips on how to avoid/defend by attacking a potential attacker by using objects or by striking on the soft spots of the attacker, when subjected to physical abuse, violence, crime, etc.

CAUSES AND PREVENTIVE MEASURES OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Bishrampur Village, Mahuadanr

4 March 2023

The Department of Geography, St. Xavier's College, Mahuadanr organized an Awareness Program on "Domestic Violence: Causes and Preventive Measures" on 4 March 2023 for the villagers of Bishrampur Village, Mahuadanr. The main objective of this objective of his program was to inform the villager about various causes of domestic violence and the preventive measures against them. Asst. Prof. Dr. Md. Areful Hoque anchored the session and welcomed the villagers.

Speaking on the topic, Asst. Prof. Shephali Parkash mentioned that domestic violence or family violence is the most serious problem in our society. Domestic violence can take the form of physical abuse (beating, pushing) sexual abuse (sexual intercourse without consent) or psychological abuse (threats). The most common causes of domestic violence are poverty and unemployment, lack of education, unsatisfactory life, patriarchy mindset, gender inequality in the family, Mms understanding between husband-wife, extra marital affairs, dowry, etc. She also mentioned the preventive measure against domestic violence such as more emphasis on women education, tolerance, respect, religious teachings, promotion of gender equality, awareness program, more love and affection in the relationship etc. Lastly, the vote of thanks was proposed by Asst Prof. Keerti Minj.

The villagers were very much motivated by this program; they interacted with the faculty members. We extend our appreciation to the villagers for their cooperation and attending despite their busy schedule.

Principal Fr. Dr. M. K. Josh and Vice Principal Sr. Kaslin Juliet played a very supportive role in the completion of this wonderful event.

AWARENESS ON GENDER DISCRIMINATION

SXC, Mauadanr

08 March 2023

On 8 March 2023, the Department of Political Science organized an Awareness Program on gender discrimination at St. Xavier's College, Mahuadanr.

Discussion on the topic highlighted how women are often denied equal opportunities. Though they are entitled to equal opportunities, the social structure is such that women are restricted to household chores and kept away from leadership and decision-making roles. Their participation in educational institution is extremely low.

It was indicated that the major factors contributing to the discriminatory treatment of women in India is the dowry system in marriage. Due to this dowry system, most Indian families consider girls as a burden and do not invest in them.

It was felt that though the Government of India has started taking steps to ensure gender equality, promulgated many laws and formulated policies to encourage girls, various campaign such as “Beti Bachao Beti Padhao” have been launched, yet greater awareness needs to be spread.

NATURE RAKSHABANDHAN

As part of the Xaverian Week Celebration, students and faculty of St. Xavier's College, Mahuadanr, conducted an awareness program with the theme 'Tying Rakhis on Trees' to celebrate Rakshabandhan in a unique way. The event took place in different adopted villages of the Mahuadanr block, with the message to Save the Environment, Conserve Biodiversity, Save Trees, and Save Lives. Rakshabandhan is traditionally seen as a symbol of protection, and the program aimed to highlight the strong bond of affection between a brother and sister, while also promoting the care and protection of nature.

The main objective of the event was to raise awareness about the importance of trees in our lives and emphasize our responsibility to safeguard them from illegal cutting and forest fires. Trees provide us with oxygen, shade during rain and heat, help purify the air, prevent soil erosion and landslides, and offer delicious fruits, among other benefits.

During the program, students, parents, and villagers tied rakhis to the trees, symbolizing their commitment to protect them. Everyone participated actively and with great enthusiasm. Approximately 100 trees were adorned with rakhis, and the students adopted them, promising to ensure their well-being. They also took the initiative to create awareness in neighboring villages, urging the villagers to protect existing trees and plant new ones.

NSS Coordinator, Assistant Prof. Maxentius Kujur, stated that the primary aim of the program was to raise environmental awareness among students. Trees play a crucial role in our lives, and it is our moral duty to safeguard them.

Participants tied rakhis on the trees using red and green ribbons, symbolizing the heritage, medicinal value, and aesthetic appeal of these trees. They tied rakhis on various plant species, including Sal, Shisham, Sagwan, Jackfruit, Tulsi, Mahuwa, Mango, Neem, Camphor, Peepal, Banyan, Mahogany, Kadamb, Guava, and many more. Through this activity, students expressed their affection and harmony towards nature, pledging to protect and conserve it for a cleaner, greener, and healthier environment.

The participants conveyed a message that every festival can be celebrated while respecting nature by using eco-friendly rakhis to protect the environment. The entire event was successfully coordinated by the NSS and Eco-club coordinators, along with other faculty members, students, parents, and villagers. The program concluded with a strong message and knowledge to protect Mother Earth.

He talked about the harmful effect of drugs. At the end of the program, biscuits and toffee were distributed among the villagers. Asst. Prof. Amrit Minj thanked the villagers.

Tying Rakhi to Trees

The second important part of the program was tying rakhis to trees with the main objective of the protection of trees for a healthy environment. The students tied ribbons around the trees in the presence of the villagers, who were advised to protect the trees from cutting down.

Conclusion - At the end of the program, the HOD Asst. Prof. Rose Alice Barla said that they would come up with more programs in this village and the villagers gave their consent on this matter. Overall. It was a great success. The students as well as the villagers learnt a lot from this awareness program.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

The Department of Mathematics has adopted the village Parhi Nawatoli, Mahuadanr. The aim of this is to uplift and encourage the villagers. It organized various activities as part of the one week-Xaverian program at Parhi Nawatoli, Mahuadanr.

Awareness Program on “Education”

All the students went door to door of some houses in the village and motivated the parents to send their children to school. Students also told the importance of education to the villagers and made them acquainted with some government schemes which are provided to the government schools. During the interaction with the villagers, several questions were asked by the villagers regarding education and students clarified their doubts with the help of professors.

The Department of Mathematics distributed pens, pencils, erasers and copies to the needy children of the village and some foodstuffs to the poor families as well. Students also encouraged the children to go to school daily without fail.

Teaching

All students tried to motivate the school children of Parhi Nawatoli by teaching. Since teaching is a process of cooperative learning between teachers and the students, they tried to make the students familiar with their potentialities through their motivational words. Also, the college students taught them their syllabus. During this teaching program, the students developed their teaching skills, self-confidence, communication skills, leadership qualities, etc. They distributed chocolates to students.

Tying Rakhi to Trees with “Save Environment” Messages

In a unique initiative to protect the environment, the students of the Department of Mathematics with villagers tied ‘rakhi’ to trees and vowed to protect them. They also resolved to protect the trees from being cut down. The students also created awareness in the village and urge the villagers to protect the existing trees and also plant new ones. This was done by the students in an attempt to raise awareness about the environment.

Conclusion

As a result of the program, the villagers got some new information. The students as well as the villagers learnt a lot from this awareness program. Overall, it was a great success.

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

The Department of Botany has adopted Dipatoli village of Mahuadanr as a social responsibility. Thus, it conducted various activities as part of the one-week Xavierian Programme at Dipatoli.

The Department of Botany held activities for the holistic development of students to bring about a change in the lives of rural people. As part of the Xavierian Week outreach programme, each class was encouraged to organize a Village outreach program to the adopted villages from April 1st to 6th 2023.

The Department of Botany went to the adopted village called Dipatoli. The students' interaction with the villagers exposed them to the daily lifestyle, social and economic conditions of the villagers. During the visit, different advantages and social evils were addressed.

Health and Sanitation: The Cleanliness Drive carried out by students in the village allowed them to participate in large-scale clean-ups, further instilling the importance of cleanliness and the citizen's role in ensuring a healthy environment to co-exist in. This drive inculcated the habit of cleaning and maintaining a cleaner environment. The students donated a broom to each family and explained the importance of Health and Sanitation.

Facilities: The students informed villagers about the basic human rights and the facilities provided by the Governments, both from the Centre as well as State.

Farming and Agriculture: Sr. Kaslin Juliet gave a talk on the importance of farming and Agriculture which helps the villages to be self-reliant by creating new job opportunities, eradicating poverty and improving rural society. The Economic development of a rural area primarily depends on the state of agriculture in that particular area. A decline in agricultural produce will adversely affect the economy.

Charitable Fund: The students were asked to collect money for a charitable fund to donate something to the villagers during the visit. The Charitable Visits opened the eyes and hearts of the students to the hardships and challenges faced by the less privileged. It gave them the opportunity to give back to society by extending a helping hand to government schools and to rural people who are less privileged. Such class visits open up students' minds to other kinds of experience and enables them to develop empathy to those who are suffering. It also encourages students to contribute generously from their savings and earnings.

Each One Teach One: Each One Teach One project was initiated by St. Xavier's College, Mahuadanr. The project focuses on providing a learning opportunity to children attending the nearby Government Hindi Medium Primary Schools. The Department of Botany had adopted the Government School in Dipatoli. These children were taught technical skills, art and craft, Math, written and spoken English. These efforts strive to make the best use of the infrastructure and facilities of the college to help these children develop important skills in an attempt to help them create better futures for themselves.

Illiteracy: The students addressed regarding Illiteracy which is a strong correlate of poverty and hunger and is mainly a rural phenomenon which hinders rural development and food security; threatens productivity and health, limits opportunities to improve livelihoods and to promote gender equity.

Malnutrition: Asst. Prof. Shalini Bara explained some of the reasons why the children get malnourished. The Prime reason is lack of access to diverse foods for mothers and children, proper hygiene and safe drinking water, as well as to health services. The chart format was presented to explain intake of certain food which would help them to keep right Diet.

Feticide: Asst. Prof. Jane Marian Soreng gave a clear information regarding Abortion of a child in the mother's womb which refers to foeticide. The talk cleared the questions raised by many villagers regarding the health issues due to Abortion and its impact on Childlessness.

Conclusion: As a result of the program, the villagers received new information that was well received by them. Their request was to conduct programs from time to time and to provide them with support. In this outreach program, students were sensitized to their duties and responsibilities within society and the community. Also, it served the citizenship training goal of education by developing soft skills, leadership skills, and team-building skills.

villagers interacted with the professors and students of the department.

Awareness Program on 'Parenting'

Dr Samir Toppo addressed the villagers. Fr. focused on parenting and parents' role in child education. Fr. said that the belief is that sending children to good school will bring better education but parents are the ones who can make all the difference. Teachers can never be a substitute to a parent. So, parents have to play vital role by keeping an eye on the activities of students. They must build a healthy relationship with children and they must abstain themselves from all the bad habits as children learn from their deeds and not from their words.

Awareness program on 'Utilization of Natural Resources'

Dr Rajeep Tirkey interacted with the villagers and talked about the utilization of natural resources available in the village. Fr. talked about income through cultivation, collection of various food products like wood, Tendu leaves, Mahua flowers and seeds. Fr. also focused on clean drinking water. Fr. advised then to boil water before using it.

Tying Rakhi to Trees

To make the villagers aware of the importance of clean environment, "Rakhi for Trees" program was also organised there. The villagers, children and college students tied ribbons around nearby trees and promised to protect them for the next generation.

Distribution

The Department of English distributed small buckets among the villagers. The villagers were very happy.

Conclusion

The Representative of the village thanked the professors and students of the department for organizing such informative programmes and welcomed them for more programs in the future. The Professors also promised to come up with more programs in the future. Overall, it was a learning experience for all.

DEPARTMENT OF HINDI

On the occasion of Xaverian week, the Department of Hindi took a new initiative against deteriorating environment due to continual felling of trees and excessive land mining in Kurund- Soharpath border Korwa Tola of Soharpath Panchayat of Mahuadanr block on 3 April 2023. Hindi Department has started a special campaign in Korwa Tola on a line of rd Chipko movement. The rapid felling of trees and growing concrete jungle has damaged the society immensely. The department thinks that if this dangerous trend is not controlled now, the coming generations will suffer and perish. St. Xavier's College has started the practice of tying rakhi to trees, linking its campaign with Raksha Bandhan. This initiative of the college gives a strong message that trees and plants are our brothers and friends who give us life and protection. They are also crucial for environmental balance. We have full faith that this campaign will create awareness and motivation among people to plant trees instead of cutting them. Head of Department Assist.Prof. Abhay Sukut Dungdung emphasized that trees and plants are very useful for our safe life. No wonder the college runs a campaign to plant trees, and protect them. On the occasion of Raksha Bandhan, the women and youth of the village along with the college students have started a campaign to tell people about the importance of trees and plants and to tie Rakhi to protect them. All have to make a fundamental option to protect trees rather than cutting them down.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

History department, semester 6 students and Staff visited Jarhatoli village, Mahuadanr for Swachh ghar Swachh samaj mission. The purpose of the initiative was to bring awareness of cleanliness at home and around.

In preparation, the students collected Rs 10 each and purchased hand-wash liquid, kerchiefs, pens, pencils, pencil-sharpeners and erasers for distribution in the village.

Students and staff first visited the houses and called the villagers for the programme.

Meeting with the people

The Asst. Prof. Subodh Minj introduced the three Professors to the villagers and spoke about the importance of keeping homes and surroundings clean. They were reminded of the 'Swachh-Bharat Abhiyan'

Home-made hand wash liquid

Asst. Prof. Smita Tigga demonstrated the method of making hand washing liquid. People were excited about it and promised to make it at home and use it regularly.

Then the staff and the students distributed among the people the things they had bought. The unexpected gifts filled them with boundless joy and gratitude.

River Cleaning

Pointing out the villagers' responsibility for clean environment was inspiring for them. They appreciated the program from their hearts.

To give an unexpected conclusion to the program, the visiting professors and students cleaned the nearby rivers, thus inspiring the villagers to do the same for their health and well-being.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Department of physics conducted various programmes like village adoption, social awareness program, river cleanliness program and tree protection awareness program on the occasion of Xaverian Week on 3rd April 2023. The teaching staff, non teaching staff and all students of the department were present in these programs.

Rampur village, near Mahuadanr town was adopted by the Department of Physics, SXCM. In this village the department conducted an awareness program on cleanliness and social responsibilities. Asst. professor Ajay Kumar Saw, Asst. professor Sister Jolly and Asst. professor Md. Zafar Aqubal spoke to the villagers effectively on the subject. The villagers' participation in the program was quite good. At the end of this program the department distributed to the people some hand washing soaps.

The next activity was river cleaning. It was done by the department at Rampur river, which is an important river in Mahuadanr sub-division. Since the river was dirty, the students and staff cleaned both sides of the river by collecting garbage and other waste. This activity was supported by the Rampur villagers. After the cleaning activity Asst. Prof. Ajay Kumar Saw delivered a speech on river cleanliness.

The last program of the day was awareness of tree protection. This program was also done by the department at the same village, Rampur. The students and teachers tied Rakhi on some trees along with the villagers for awareness of tree protection. The villagers' response and participation in the program was positive and hope generating.

The professors and the students felt that the program was effective and purposeful because the villagers listened attentively to the speeches and took active part in interactions and the cleaning activity.
